LPGA SHOOTOUT OFFERS FREE ADMISSION TO CHILDREN, MILITARY VETERANS; REDUCED ADMISSION TO COLLEGE STUDENTS WITH ID

(IRVING, TEXAS) — Irving is no stranger to professional golf events – and now one tournament is doing its part to make golf more accessible.

The North Texas LPGA Shootout, a professional women’s golf tournament, is offering free or discounted tournament admission to select groups.

- Children under the age of 18 will be admitted free
- High school students with a valid ID will be admitted free
- Military personnel with a valid ID will be admitted free
- College students with a valid ID will receive a 20 percent discount

The tournament is taking place May 1 to 4 at the Las Colinas Country Club, 4400 N. O’Connor Road. It’s the second year the LPGA Shootout will be held in Irving.

Tournament tickets for adults over the age of 18 are $25 for a daily ticket, or $75 for admission to the tournament from Wednesday, April 30 through Sunday, May 4. Tickets to the clubhouse hospitality venue are also available and start at $200.

Ninety nine of the world’s top 100 female golfers are expected at the event, including Paula Creamer, Michelle Wie, Lexi Thompson and the 2012 LPGA Player of the Year Stacy Lewis.

Proceeds from the tournament will benefit the Nexus Club, a nonprofit that primarily supports and raises funds for the LPGA-USGA Girls Golf in North Texas.
