Historical Sketch

St. Luke Catholic Church

St. Luke Catholic Church was founded in 1902 when services were held by Reverend Raymond Vernimont in the old Lively School house, which was located near the intersection of today's Britain and Union Bower roads. As the congregation grew, the need for a church building arose. In 1903, plans were drawn up for the construction of a Catholic church in Irving. When establishing the town, Irving's founders, J.O. Schulze and Otis Brown, dedicated lots for a Catholic Church, a Church of Christ and a Baptist Church. The lot for the Catholic Church was located at the corner of Jefferson and Second streets and that is where the church was built.

For 25 years the church grew, and by 1928 St. Luke was overcrowded and in need of a bigger space. Land for a new church, purchased from Eugene Beaufford, was located on the corner of Iowa (now O'Connor) and Fifth streets. Between 1942 and 1952, three priests served as pastors for St. Luke's: Father Misch, Msgr. Brady, and Father Untereiner. By 1947, St. Luke Church had grown large enough to be named an independent parish.

By 1953, Irving was a rapidly growing suburban community and the church could no longer accommodate the 350 families attending services. Charles Schulze, nephew of Irving's co-founder, donated seven acres of land on Rock Island and Perch Hill roads (now S. MacArthur Blvd.) for a new church site. The parish also planned to build a rectory and school on the same property. Plans for construction were directed by Msgr. Paul Charcut, who was pastor at the time. On Sunday, May 2, 1954, Bishop Thomas Gorman dedicated the newly built church.

The parish built a new church adjacent to the 1954 church building in 1988, which is still in use today (2017).

St Luke Catholic School

St. Luke Catholic parish opened the first Catholic school in the City of Irving in 1955. On Sunday, October 23, Bishop Dangelmayr dedicated the school. Kindergarten through third grade were offered the first year. Lay teachers taught the students. Six nuns from the Holy Family of Nazareth Order came to the school in 1956 and the school was expanded through the eighth grade. Three hundred and twenty five students attended that year.

In 1957 the parish began a fund-raising campaign for the construction of a convent. The parishioners raised a total of $125,000 for the project. The convent accommodated 14 nuns, the number projected to work at the school. The building was completed and Bishop Thomas K. Gorman led the dedication ceremonies on December 28, 1958. By 1961, St. Luke's School employed 14 nuns, 4 lay teachers and had an enrollment of 600 students. The Mother's Club collected trading stamps allowing them to purchase a 54 passenger school bus in 1964. A second Catholic Church and school, Holy Family of Nazareth, opened in Irving in 1964. The new facility drew attendance away from St. Luke School.

Under the authority of Fr. Daniel Clayton in 1982, the school board developed a foreign language program and computer studies program for the school curriculum.

In the late 1980s the school introduced Pre-K and all-day Kindergarten. By 1990, only two nuns remained at St. Luke School, the remainder of the faculty for the 350 students were lay teachers. The year 2000 was the first in 45 years that the school did not have a nun from the Holy Family of Nazareth Order teaching there.

St. Luke School celebrated its 50th Anniversary in 2005. Among the activities commemorating the event was the opening of a time capsule from 1986. In 2016, St. Luke School, with an enrollment of about 125 students, closed and merged with Holy Family of Nazareth School. The new school is known as Holy Family Catholic Academy.

Scope and Content Note

The St. Luke Catholic School Collection is arranged in three series and housed in two manuscript boxes, one half manuscript box, one flat box, and nine cubic foot boxes. The materials in each folder are arranged in chronological order with undated items at the back of the folder. Photocopies of the newspaper articles were made for preservation purposes and are at back of each folder.

This collection provides in-depth insight into the establishment of St. Luke Catholic Church and School. The growth of both institutions parallels the growth of the City of Irving beginning at its founding in 1903.

Series I, Church History, consists primarily of newspaper clippings and documents relating to the history of the church. The bulk of the material covers the period 1950-2000. Also included, among other materials, are histories of the church written by church members through the years, programs and fliers promoting various church events, Altar Boy schedules, and a book about the history of the Diocese of Dallas.

Series II, School History, documents the history of St. Luke School. This series is divided into four subseries. The first subseries consists of newspaper articles. The articles provide a good history of the construction and expansion of the school and the construction of the convent. Subseries II is made up of scrapbooks that record various school events. Subseries III consists of directories, yearbooks, and handbooks. Subseries IV, Artifacts, contains a time capsule that was created in 1986 to be opened in 2000. It was opened in 2005 and, at that time, additional items were placed inside with the intent of re-opening the capsule in 2025. The school closed in 2016 and the capsule was donated to the Irving Archives. Most of the artifacts in the series are items placed in the time capsule. In addition, there are a few other small school-related artifacts, such as plaques and bumper stickers.

Series III, Photographs, is made up of photos of students and faculty, classroom activities, school events, graduation classes and sporting events. The photos are in hardcopy and also on CD-ROMs. Notable are the framed photos of each graduation class, 1965-2016 (missing 1973, 1977, 1989 and 2002). The students' names are listed in alphabetical order below the photo. Also included in the series are proof sheets of the yearbooks from 2004, 2005 and 2007.

Provenance Statement

The St. Luke Catholic School Collection was donated to the Irving Archives by St Luke School. The donation was coordinated by the principal of St. Luke School, Kathy Carruth, on June 17, 2016. Prior to its donation to the Archives, the material was stored at St. Luke School.

Literary Right Statement

Permission to publish from the St. Luke Catholic School Collection must be obtained from the Irving Archives.

Time Capsule- Metal Box

The time capsule is a metal box in which the St. Luke class of 1985-86 placed items. The box was to be opened in 2000, but was lost and not found until 2001. They waited until 2005, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the school, to open it. At that time they examined the items that were placed in the capsule in 1986, and returned them to the capsule. They also added items from 2005 to the capsule with a plan to reopen it in 2025. The school closed in 2016 and the capsule came to the Irving Archives as part of the school's collection. The items that were in the capsule when it arrived at the Irving Archives remain in it, except for a green cloth banner which was moved to Box 5. The processing archivist placed a copy of a newspaper article from 2005, in the time capsule. The article explains the history of the capsule. The key to the time capsule is mounted in a shadow box in the capsule.

Class of 1986 Items:

A 1985-1986 videotape, two letters written by 8th graders Jenny Johnson and Arthur Armenta, and two letters written by 7th graders Mary Frost and unknown, a letter from Principal Piercey to the principal of the school in 2000, and two balloons from the Open House during Catholic Schools Week. There are report cards for grades 1-3 and 4-8, class schedules, cafeteria menu, school brochure, bumper stickers, and a picture of Father Clayton and Principal Piercey. Also included are newspapers from Wednesday, January 29, 1986, and Friday, January 31, 1986.

Class of 2005 Items:

A student from each class selected an item they felt was important to be placed in the time capsule. The items selected were: a list of 100 most read books in 2005, pictures relating to Pope John Paul II, information about the presidential elections and the tsunami that struck India, a list of favorite books, a January 30th church bulletin, a list of honor roll students, names with numbers of volleyball and basketball players. Also, included are letters written by school representatives and photos of the 1986 capsule being opened in 2005.

The following items are part of Series IV, Artifacts, but are housed in Box 5: bumper stickers and decals of the St. Luke School logo; two plaques, one from a Trike-a-thon, 2005-06, and one of the boys basketball champions, 2005-06; a dedication paper for the yearbook, 2006-07; sample diplomas from 1975, 1976, and 1981. Also included are two banners: a white plastic banner from the 50th anniversary of the school celebration and a green cloth banner, from Catholic Schools Week, promoting excellence. The green banner was an item placed in the 1986 time capsule.
